

Preposition

A preposition is a word used before a noun or pronoun to show its relation with other words of the sentence.

let me speak	P + V + ing P + object	P + object at Alwar in Rajasthan .

besides on Monday
in January
with you
at your result

Place
He entered the College
He entered into my Fight about not good at giving me with pen bad in

of ^{Living} Cancer
by Suicide / accident / violence from overdrinking / over eating noyed / angry

with you

Congratulated on Yielded

Shout at

shoot at

Aim at

Pixie at laugh at

jealous/envious - of

On Christmas day

at Christmas

Enquire into = Investigate

Consist of = comprise

Wait for = await

In spite of = despite hinder

abstain

Refrain from

Prevent

Prohibit

forbid

Plunged into

into five at

attention — to

Ramesh is too busy to call you Ramesh is so busy that he cannot call you.

insisted → on rely on

Comply with Count on bank on

Accede - to hinged on

Objected to

Insisted - on

Prefer / elder / junior to

he resiped to you
an enemy } acquainted with for performance he } beware

revenge

avenged

1.T on n.l.T for aware } of

wait for = await

I revenge for my insult

he saved from wild animal for drowning

n.l.t